Bible Reading notes: a number of people take these well produced booklets that help us understand and engage with the scriptures. If you would like to know more, please speak with Sheila who is taking orders.

Outreach for the apprehensive: It's a well known fact that churches grow through people receiving a personal invitation or someone talking about their faith in a simple, down to earth way. Many us find such inviting and talking about our faith difficult. If you'd like to meet up to explore ways of taking the anxiety out of this and looking at techniques that work, please let me know. I would gladly run a session for one person!
